About Us

Uptown Nutrition - Your Partners in Health.

We are committed to building long term relationships with our customers. We avoid products that are the latest fad and we thoroughly research new products before bringing them to our store.

Because we are independent we are able to make choices based on quality, not quantity and price.

We carry the very best in supplements, herbs, skincare, cosmetics, pet supplements and sports nutrition. Plus, unique locally made art and gifts.

We also offer an in store reference library, lending library and cancer information center.

For information, health news, recipes and more, check out our website at:
