Executive Directors

Don't miss this great opportunity to meet & develop a network with other non-profit directors in Jefferson County!

Each one-and-a-half hour session will feature a set agenda that includes open discussion moderated by JCCF Philanthropic Consultant, Dr. Kristina Mayer.

By attending this facilitated networking session you'll:

- Discover more effective management strategies

- Explore ideas for working more effectively with your staff and board
- Learn promising practices for organizational suitability
- Share networking opportunities

"Jefferson County Non-profit Alliance is just what we need! It is opening a valuable door of possibilities for strengthening the leadership of non-profit organizations in our community. I value this opportunity to be part of a learning community where we can discover common ground, explore fresh ideas, receive feedback and hone our skills. Just imagine the potential this Alliance offers us to better serve the people of our community and affect positive change on vital and often complex issues facing us today and in the future."

- MaryAnn Seward, Executive Director, Jumping Mouse Children's Center
